

ABOUT THE PROGRAM

Paralegals work under the supervision of lawyers in a range of tasks—researching the law; preparing for hearings; interviewing clients and witnesses; and preparing legal documents and other legal correspondence. Paralegals cannot give legal advice or represent clients in court. If you are detail-oriented, organized, strong in communication, and enjoy researching and analyzing facts, you might find a career as a paralegal very rewarding. This credential is appropriate for those persons who already have earned a bachelor’s degree.
